

PUBLIC LEDGER

FIFTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 3, 1896.

ONE CENT.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can lose over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppers,

excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for ordinary notices, resolutions of respect, etc., THE LEDGER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Local in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—42 times—the bill is $15.35. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, no "till told" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Misses Gary and Christine Milam are visiting their sister, Mrs. Henry Phillips of Millersburg.

Mrs. Mary Dudley of Hilltop is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Davis at "River-view."

Mrs. Dr. M. H. Davis of Mayslick is in Paris on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hukill.

Mrs. James Cummings of this city has been the guest for some days of Mrs. James Woolums at Millersburg.

Mr. Joseph Morford, one of Lexington's prosperous druggists, has been visiting his mother in this city for several days.

John A. Porter was fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct.

Henry Smith, colored, was fined $10 and costs for breach of the peace.

The action against Peter H. Clark, for grand larceny, has been dismissed by the Circuit Court.

Ray's Rainbow Ready-mixed Paint is guaranteed to give satisfaction. At Post-office Drugstore.

The C. W. B. M. of the Christian Church will meet in the chapel Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The cases against Mr. Hiram T. Warder, for malicious cutting and shooting, have been continued in the Circuit Court.

H. B. Porter was yesterday convicted of robbery by a Jury in the Circuit Court and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

John Garrett, Jr., George Fletcher, Tim Maher and Frank Page, for various offenses, failed of indictment before the Grand Jury and they were discharged.

Those desiring tickets for the Sunday-school excursion to the Zoo Saturday are requested to call and get them from Mr. J. B. Orr, Jr., either at this office or his residence. Positively no one will be sold tickets only members of Sunday-schools or Churches. The total cost of the trip will be 90 cents, and those going will supply themselves with tickets today or tomorrow, as the managers have to let the railroad company know by tomorrow night how many extra coaches they will need.

Odé to Marie Decca.

God speed thee! gentle songstress—with regret We say it: 'tis a sign thy carols earn. We're loath to have thee spread thy wings, and yet There is the hopeful promise of return. Like thee in song, may we in living learn To strike the chords of being—full and clear— With scorn, all life's ignoble discords spurn, And let its sweetest music strike the ear. —Howard James.

MY OLD KENTUCKY GIRL.

Young Cupid's bow is modeled By the curve of that sweet mouth, And her breath is like the perfume Of the breezes from the South: Her hair is fair and golden, And her eye is clear and blue; Her laugh is rippling, richest wine; Her heart is fresh and true. She comes to meet me, flying, And her welcome's like the spring, With smiles and tears of gladness, And she makes my old heart sing. 'Tis light and life to meet her, And there's chaste and perfect bliss When she lifts her face and gives me A daughter's sweet kiss. O! how lovingly she leads me, Thro' old-time homestead halls, And halts where pictured faces Of dead loved ones, on the walls, Look down and smile upon us, And give their welcome, too. While 'cross my face the shadow flies Of grief that comes anew. But come the days and go the days, And we are happy there, For I love to watch those eyes of blue And kiss the sunny hair; And I'm proud to see her spring upon Her mettled thoroughbred, And gallop through the woodlands, Where the bluegrass carpet's spread. She is blithe and bright and winsome, But there will come a day When some lover of another kind Will spirit her away. By the spell that wins these dear ones—Aye, even such a pearl As this, my old heart's sweetheart, My own Kentucky girl. —William Lightfoot Vischer.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNAL.

White steamers—FAIR; Blue—RAIN or SNOW; With Black ABOVE—TWO WARMER GROW; If Black's BENEATH—COLDER 'TILL BE; Unless Black's shown—no change will take.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Prayer-meeting tonight at the Central Presbyterian Church. All cordially invited to attend.

The next session of the Christian Endeavor Convention of Kentucky will be held at Owensboro.

A letter written and mailed in Jeddah, Arabia, will be delivered in New York twenty-one days later.

Colonel W. W. Baldwin has some fine stock for sale—cattle and trotting-horses. See advertisement elsewhere in THE LEDGER.

The Louisville Fair and Driving Association will hang up $40,000 in stakes and purses to be contested for during the meeting which will take place there this fall.

The big advertisement of Hechinger & Co. was the feature of yesterday's LEDGER, to the exclusion of much neighborhood news which finds place in today's impression.

It is reported that the Germans, who recently made heavy purchases of American apples, intend to use this fruit in the manufacture of champagne by an entirely new and secret process.

Taylor Bros. at Washington are selling 20 pounds of granulated sugar for $1.6 packages of Arbuckle's coffee for $1.15 and all their drygoods and shoes at cost to close out. They have a nice stock.

President Thwing of the Western Reserve University, who has been investigating the subject, places the number of graduates from American colleges and universities at about 300,000. Of these about 150,000 are now living.

Mr. James Perdue, an old soldier residing at Monroe, Mich., was severely afflicted with rheumatism but received prompt relief from pain by using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says: "At times my back would ache so badly that I could hardly raise up. If I had not gotten relief I would not be here to write these few lines. Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done me a great deal of good and I feel very thankful for it." For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

When Chicago burned the Oddfellows gave $90,000 for the relief of the sufferers; for the relief of the Johnstown flood they gave $60,000, and for the Memphis yellow fever sufferers more money than was needed, and excess being used to place tombstones over the graves of the dead. Then people wonder what the Oddfellows do with the money they receive for dues. Whenever calamities and disasters by fire and flood, by famine and pestilence have spread sorrow and suffering, the Oddfellows are among the first to send money and assistance of all kinds, that they might give relief to the suffering and gladden the sorrowful. Such are the principles of Oddfellowship.

Mrs. Abby Aikman and James B. Aikman have sold to Mrs. Catharine Miller, a house and lot on the Germantown pike, West End, for $500.

Mrs. Laura K. Thomas sold to James C. Thomas grantor's interest in the estate of her late husband John N. Thomas "not heretofore received by her, either as widow or distributee or as legatee or devisee" for $15,000.

There will be three attractions in the city tomorrow evening—the Commencement Exercises of Hayswood at the Opera-house, the meeting of the Board of Council, and the "Trail" of the Red-men. Isn't that enough for one night?

Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Pangburn have returned from Ripley, where Mrs. Pangburn has been ill for some weeks. Her many friends will be pleased to learn that her condition is much improved, and that there are now hopes for an early and complete recovery.

The present Grand Jury consists of Silas Robinson, Foreman; George Coffee, Edward Robinson, Wall Smoot, Samuel Howard, Thomas Tuggles, Thomas Worthington, S. B. Oldham, A. R. Burgess, John W. Coulter, James S. Pyles and William R. Day.

Important—Injunct!

Every member of Wyandotte Tribe No. 3 is urgently requested to attend meeting this evening at 7:30. Preparations for Trail and other business of importance.

FRANK BROMLEY, Sachem.

T. M. Russell, C. of R.

Horses Wanted!

Mr. Joe Kindig of York, Pa., will be at Mose Daulton & Bro.'s Stable, Maysville, Ky., on Tuesday, June 16th, 1896, and will pay the highest market prices for good, sound horses or mares from 4 to 6 years old, well broken and in good flesh. Bring in good ones and get the money for them. Don't forget the date.

WEIGHTY WORDS.

What Governor Bradley Wrote on Farrel's Pardon Papers.

Ever since Governor Bradley has been in office strong pressure has been brought to bear on him to grant a pardon to Bob Farrel, sent up for life for the killing of Thomas Calvert of this county. But it will probably be some time before Farrel makes another application for pardon.

Here is what the Governor wrote on his petition in rejecting it:

"This man's appeal has been, time and again, heard by my predecessors and refused. He seduced the wife and daughter and murdered the father and husband. I see no reason why I should disagree with my predecessors."

A big effort has been made to obtain Farrel's pardon on the ground that he was dying.

Mr. C. H. White went to the city some days ago and tried to board a streetcar. The way he spread himself all over the asphalt pavement soon earned for him the title of Country Hayseed White. Fortunately Mr. White was not seriously hurt, getting off with a few bruises.

The young Eckfords played the Aberdeen Club yesterday and was outplayed by a score of 30 to 14, the score standing in favor of the Ohio. Batteries for Eckfords Fansler, Wood and Willett, for Ohio Sutton and Hartman. Fansler was knocked out of the box. Attendance 110. Umpire Darnal.

The people of Johnstown observed a Memorial Day in honor of the departed ones who lost their lives in the great flood, which occurred on Friday, May 31st, 1889. Over 3,800 persons perished that day. Thousands of people, accompanied by bands, visited the cemeteries. The scene at the plat of the unknown dead in Grandview Cemetery, where over six hundred lie buried, was singularly pathetic.

Marie Decca in New York.

Miss Decca is a remarkable singer. She is fair and graceful, and is of beautiful stage presence. She has a phenomenally high, pure and brilliant voice and should take a place among the most brilliant of singers. She sang two numbers, first the brilliant aria "Le Mysioli," from "Le Perle du Bresil," with flute obligato, and in the second part the grand "Queen of Night" aria from Mozart's "Magic Flute." In her first number Miss Decca, after once getting warmed up to her work, certainly astonished her audience by the flute like clearness and purity of her high notes, the intelligence of her phrasing and the deep beauty of expression, while her staccato was clear and true, and her trills and cadenzas delicate and artistic.

Miss Decca's further appearance will be looked forward to with pleasure. Her voice is a wonderful one and she does wonders with it. Especially in the Eckert's Swiss "Echo Song," written for Jeany Lind, no more beautiful and artistic rendition could well be imagined. Her success was instantaneous and she aroused her listeners to great enthusiasm.

CAPTAIN WASH. HONSHELL.

An Interesting Sketch of the Well Known Steamboatman.

Captain Wash. Honshell, whose death at Catlettsburg is announced, was one of the old and well known steamboatmen of the days before and during the War.

He began his steamboating as a knife shiner, and by diligence and industry worked his way to the top of the business.

He was a man of few words, and one that could be relied on in any emergency.

Many years ago while he was commander of the old Telegraph, some fellow who had lost a calf on the boat in some way had his boat tied up by a Constable while she was lying at the Augusta wharf without saying anything to Captain Honshell about the matter before-hand.

When the Captain got through discharging his freight he gave the order to the pilot to go ahead, and to the consternation of officer, calfowner and everyone on the wharfbost to which he was tied, he carried the whole concern out in the middle of the river, and only agreed to carry them back to shore at the earnest solicitation of the whole crowd and the promise of the officer that he would never repeat the measure.

He took them back, but said that if such a caper was ever cut again with any boat under his command he would carry them up the river several miles, cut loose from them and leave them to get back the best way they might find.

After that they gave the Telegraph a wide berth, you may depend.

Indigestion is often taken for consumption. The word consumption means wasting away, and dyspeptics often waste away as badly as consumptives.

The reason people waste away is because either they don't get enough to eat or they don't digest what they do eat. If the latter is your trouble, take Shaker Digestive Cordial. This will help you to digest your food and stop your loss of flesh. Shaker Digestive Cordial is made from herbs, barks and the juices of fruit, by the well known Shakers at Mount Lebanon. It possesses great tonic and digestive powers. Shaker Digestive Cordial has cured many supposed consumptives (who were really dyspeptics) by simply helping their stomach to digest their food, thus giving them nourishment and new strength. Sold by druggists. Trial bottle 10 cents.
